

IRISH INSTITUTE OF HELLENIC STUDIES AT ATHENS

*Institiúid Éireannach san Ataen don Léann Heilléanach
Ιρλανδικό Ινστιτούτο Ελληνικών Σπουδών στην Αθήνα*

The Multifaceted Aspects of Ritual

A series of theoretical seminars on ritual organised by the Irish Institute of Hellenic Studies at Athens

Prof. Joanne M.A. Murphy

Director of the IIHSA

1st Seminar

“Aegean and Minoan Religion in a Ritual Context”

This theory seminar is the first in a series of seminars on Multifaceted Aspects of Ritual directed at graduate students who are interested in the topic. In this meeting, to contextualize the series and the succeeding seminars in past and current scholarship on ritual, there will be a brief presentation on the themes and trends in Minoan and Aegean Religion over the past 100 years. The presentation will summarize the theoretical developments during this time and assess how they impacted and changed approaches and questions being asked in Minoan religion that has culminated in a recent focus on the scholarship of ritual. The presentation will be succeeded by a group discussion on the topic.

Register via Eventbrite: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/1st-theoretical-seminar-on-ritual-tickets-438892618637>

Only twenty people are allowed to attend the seminar in order to have a fruitful and educational discussion. In case you have any questions, please contact the Assist. Director: irishinstitute@gmail.com.

The Seminar is co-hosted by UCD-School of Archaeology

Thursday, 20th October 2022
Lecture begins at 19.30 (Greece Time)
17.30 (Ireland Time)

Navarhou Notara 51a
106 83 Athens
Greece

Tel/Fax: +30-210-8848074
Email: irishinstitute@gmail.com
www.iihsa.ie